Summary

This is the confrontation scene where the FBI come to arrest Hannibal but with the change that Will and Hannibal have been married since before the show, Hannibal was the one to consultant with the FBI not Will, and Hannibal is certain he's kept his hobbies secret from Will.

Now he's trying to find a way to get out of this and to Will so he can get them out of this country and hopefully never have to explain why they left in the first place.

Rated M for Violence

When Hannibal met his now husband he had been immediately attracted to that dark undertone he hid from the world.

Hannibal had always been content to just basks in it's presence despite Will never fully letting it out. Always taking a pleasure in seeing him dine on and thouroughly enjoy the many meals Hannibal made for him. Never knowing what they truly were. In a weird way, Hannibal took a sick sweet desire from feeding anyone in that way but something about watching Will eat his cooking was oh so different. It made for another ache that he could only satisfy with the man himself.

How wonderful it was when Hannibal realized how truly compatible they were. They made for the most surprising yet obvious couple and it wasn't even six months before Hannibal was proposing. Only for Will to turn him down multiple times until their second year anniversary. Demanding at least that long before ever even considering marriage. While he wasn'ta s eager as Hannibal, Hannibal was still glad the man was ever so willing evn from that first proposal. He just had his own sensiblities to get over

They were married years before Jack Crowford ever felt the need to come and approach Hannibal Lecter for a consulation and even longer before the man began to suspect Hannibal as his killer.

It would be an exciting but ever so horrible year of keeping his love out of the loop while still enjoying messing with the police. He knew he had to get his priorities in order however when his love was mistaken for the killer and temporarily imprisoned. Absoluetly unacceptable. Hannibal would sooner kill and consume everyone involved in that case then allow that to stand. Now they live happily together again under no suscpicion.

At least... that's what Hannibal thought until Jack came knocking at his door.
